The Program in Arts & Medicine's Inaugural Lecture Series Presents:

With actors reading a play:

Haut Goût

followed by Q&A with playwright Allan Havis

Haut Goût follows an American physician to Haïti, where medical ideals, cultural norms, and personal ethics come into violent collision. A harrowing and provocative play.

Wednesday, May 23, 2012 from 4:30 – 6:30 pm
at the Medical Education and Telemedicine Building (MET) 143

Allan Havis has published 15 full length plays as well as a volume, American Political Plays, published by the University of Illinois Press. He is a recipient of the Guggenheim, Rockefeller and National Endowment for the Arts Awards among many others.
